

J. C. Ehmann

J.C Ehmann was an outstanding athlete at Col. Crawford High School. J.C. played football, basketball and baseball for the Eagles. Ehmann played four years of basketball, and was a member of the NCC Championship team both his junior and senior year. As a junior, Ehmann was 2nd Team NCC, District 6 Honorable Mention MVP of the Buckeye Central Holiday Tournament and 2nd team all-county. During his senior year, the Eagles had an overall record of 20-1, and were 11-1 in the North Central Conference. J.C. was the team captain, MVP and won the Eagle Award. He was a 1st team unanimous pick in the NCC, 1st team District 6 Coaches Association, 1st team All NW Ohio Associated Press, 1st Team All-Ohioan UPI Selection, 2nd Team All Ohio AP Selection, and was chosen to play in the North-South All Ohio All-Star Game. J.C. also played in the News Journal All-Star Game and was chosen as the Most Valuable Player of the game. Ehmann set the CCHS season scoring record with 497 points and the season assist record with 204 assists. Ehmann averaged 22.6 points per game.

In baseball, J.C. was All-Ohio Honorable mention, 1st team NCC and in 1991, his baseball team was the NCC winner and Sectional Champ. J.C. also played in the Lexington Lions All-Star game.

As a football player for the Eagles, J.C. was 2nd team All-Ohio, and a member of the 1990 McDonald's All Star Football Classic. He was a first team all NCC Conference member on both offense and defense, and first team all Northwest District.

J.C. went on to play basketball at Owens College for two years, and won two National Championships! J.C. is a farmer and also works at Sunrise Co-op. He is married to Marilyn and has a daughter, Claire and son Keith.